DEFINITIONS

Vendor Brochure Table- one table in the Vendor area set aside for brochures only. All approved, paid vendor levels may place their promotional materials (brochures, business cards, catalogs) there.

Coffee Sponsor- vendor gets to place promotional sign at coffee station and gets special thank you recognition in front of the group at that evening's meeting.

Tables at RE101 & Special Seminars- based on availability. You get a full table for the day (food not included) and depending on location of the RE101 class or seminar, this table may be inside the room or just outside the room. You get a 5-10 minute commercial in front of the class at the beginning of the day or at lunch time.

Newsletter article- limit one per year and can be up to 500 words. Article must be informational. You may list your contact information at the end of the article.

Vendor Recognition at Meetings- your company name and contact information on a Powerpoint slide shown prior to meeting

Banner Ads - on the DIG website's front page. You need to submit your company logo and depending on whether you have a small banner or large banner will determine your placement on the page.
